

ISFP

“The Artist”

ISFP = I'm Sincerely Fulfilling my Purpose

ISFP's are peaceful, easygoing people who adopt a “live and let live” approach to life. They enjoy taking things at their own pace and tend to live in the moment.

ISFP's are difficult to build a close relationship with. They usually have a small circle of friends and family who they have had relationships with over long periods of time.

They excel in positions where they can follow their own personal value system while also expressing themselves creatively.
